DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE POLICY NOTICE TO APPLICANT: It is the policy of APR, that all employees are prohibited from the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of any controlled substances, including alcohol, in the workplace and remote job sites. Drug and alcohol testing will occur after every job related injury. All benefits will be denied if tests are positive. Any employee violating this policy may be subject to immediate discharge. The signature below is acknowledgment that I have read and understood APR’s drug-free workplace policy. I agree to immediately report all on-the-job injuries to my supervisor. I also agree to post-accident drug and alcohol testing within 24 hours of my injury. I will comply with all medical treatment authorization regulations and managed care plans as applicable under state law. If the treatment situation is an emergency I understand I can initially be treated at any emergency treatment facility or call 911. I understand that APR will have my claim assigned to an insurance adjuster who will assist me and authorize any additional treatment. I acknowledge that it may be a criminal felony to file a false workers' compensation claim.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND AGREEMENT

I, the undersigned individual, in consideration of my being placed in a professional employer relationship with the Advantage Personnel Resources company identified herein, acknowledge and agree to the following:

(1) At all times during my relationship with APR, I understand and agree that I will remain an employee of the client company for which I am working ("Client") that has contracted with APR and, to the extent allowed by law, Client will continue to have sole and exclusive control over my day-to-day job duties and over the worksite(s) where I perform services. Additionally, to the extent allowed by law, Client will continue to provide all onsite supervision, including, but not limited to, determining my job assignments and training requirements and evaluating my performance. Also, to the extent allowed by law, Client will determine my job duties, rate of pay, hours worked, continued employment opportunities, and other terms and conditions of my employment.

(2) I understand and agree that my status with APR is at-will. I further understand and agree that there is no contract of employment which exists between APR and me and I understand and agree that APR will not become a party to any contract of employment which I have already entered into or which I may in the future enter into with Client. Additionally, I understand and agree my at-will status with APR does not change the employment status I had with Client prior to the existence of the professional employer relationship between APR and Client and that APR is not responsible for any contractual obligations which may exist between Client and me;

(3) I understand and agree that I am performing services within a professional employer organization relationship where the duties and responsibilities applicable to me are set forth in a service agreement entered into between Client and APR;

(4) I understand and agree that, unless otherwise required by law if APR does not receive payment from Client for services which I perform as a utilized individual, APR may, where allowed by law, pay me the applicable minimum wage (or the legally required minimum salary) for any such pay period, and I agree to this method of compensation. Additionally, I understand and agree that Client at all times ultimately remains obligated to pay me my regular hourly rate of pay if I am a non-exempt individual and to pay me my full salary if I am an exempt individual if APR is not fully paid by Client for services that I render;

(5) I understand and agree that, unless otherwise required by law, where payment for the following items have not been received by APR from Client, APR does not assume responsibility for payment of bonuses, commissions, severance pay, deferred compensation, profit sharing, vacation, sick, or other paid time off pay and compensation, benefit, or for any other payment not required by law, in any form, or for any other similar type of payment, unless APR has specifically, in a written agreement entered into with me, adopted Client's obligation to pay me such compensation or benefit (APR does assume this responsibility where such payment has been received from Client encompassing such items regarding me);

(6) Unless otherwise contractually agreed to by Client and APR, APR has agreed to maintain workers' compensation insurance covering my employment. In recognition of the fact that any work-related injuries which might be sustained by me are covered by state workers' compensation statutes, and to avoid the circumvention of such state statutes which may result from suits against the customers or clients of APR or against APR based on the same injury or injuries, and to the extent permitted by law, I hereby waive and forever release any rights I might have to make claims or bring suit against any client or customer of APR and/or against APR for damages based upon injuries which are covered under such workers' compensation statutes. In the event of a work-related injury, I understand and agree that, to the extent allowed by law, my sole remedy lies in coverage under APR workers' compensation policy or Client's workers' compensation policy if it maintains its own workers' compensation policy;

(7) I understand and agree that if I am injured on the job, even if the injury is minor or I do not want treatment, I must immediately report it to my supervisor. I also agree to comply with any lawful drug testing policy which may be adopted, and I specifically agree to post-accident drug testing in any situation where it is allowed by law;

(8) In addition, I also agree that if at any time during my employment at Client I am subjected to any type of discrimination, including discrimination because of race, sex, sexual orientation, harassment of any type, disability, color, age, genetic information, national origin, citizenship status, religion, retaliation, veteran status, military status, or union status, or if I am subjected to any type of harassment including sexual harassment, I will immediately contact an appropriate person of Client. In most instances, this appropriate person will be the President of Client. Should I choose not to contact Client for any reason, I may contact APR's Human Resources Director at 1-866-415-8821 for the limited purpose of having APR, at its option, and not as an employer, but as a possible facilitator, try in its sole discretion, to attempt to facilitate a resolution;

(9) I understand and agree that Client has sole and exclusive control over my day-to-day job duties and Client has sole and exclusive control over the job site at which, or from which, I perform my services and that APR only reserves and retains such rights and authority as is required by applicable law. I agree that APR does not have actual control over my workplace and, as such, is not in a position to end or remediate any discrimination, harassment, unsafe working condition, retaliation, or wrongdoing which may be occurring. The responsibility to resolve and/or end such inappropriate conduct or unsafe working condition rests with Client, however, APR may attempt to facilitate a resolution;

(10) I understand and agree that due to licensure and workers' compensation restrictions applicable to professional employer organizations, if I am accepted as a utilized individual of APR, I am expressly prohibited from performing any work outside the state in which I am currently performing services for Client ("Home State") during my status as a utilized individual except as may be allowed pursuant to the workers' compensation policy provided to me by APR or except as may be allowed in writing by APR and the applicable workers' compensation carrier;

(11) If I work outside the Home State for Client or for anyone else without first securing this approval as set forth at (10), I understand and agree that I will no longer be in a professional employer organization relationship with APR and may not be provided workers' compensation benefits through APR or the applicable workers' compensation carrier and my professional employer organization relationship with APR will be considered immediately terminated upon commencement of my trip outside the Home State to perform work where prior approval has not been received as set forth herein;

(12) I understand and agree that, to the extent allowed by law, any obligation of APR ceases when APR's professional employer organization agreement with Client terminates;

(13) I understand and agree if I am eligible for any benefits it is my responsibility (and the responsibility of any family members/ dependents who wish to participate) to timely submit all required forms and information;

(14) I understand and agree that should any dispute arise between me and APR out of any issue that arises from or is in any way related the issues set forth this Acknowledgement Agreement, excluding matters that arise from work-related injuries or are otherwise pre-empted Chapter 440, Florida Statutes, or other similarly enacted workers' compensation statutes in the Home State, the proper venue for these disputes shall be in a court of competent jurisdiction in Alachua County, Florida.

(15) I understand that if I am terminated by the Client or abandon my employment with the Client, I may be held liable for any wages or benefits I wrongfully receive after I am terminated and/or abandon my employment with the Client. I understand and agree that I will promptly notify APR of any wages and/or benefits I receive after my employment with the Client ceases for any reason whatsoever and that failure to notify APR may result in legal action against me.

(16) In the event a dispute, arises between the contracting parties, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in resolving such dispute at all levels, including appeals.

(17) To the extent allowable by law, by signing this Agreement, I assign to APR, my right to assert a priority wage claim against Client under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a){3} in the event that a Bankruptcy Petition is filed under Title 7 and or Title 11 of the United States Code by or on behalf of Client; and

(18) Should I sign this form and/or complete APR's utilized individual paperwork and never be accepted as a utilized individual of APR, this form shall be null and void.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

▶ Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
▶ Give Form W-4 to your employer.
▶ Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		▶ Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying widow(er) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App, and privacy.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld . . . ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2022 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $ _____
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ▶ $ _____
	Add the amounts above and enter the total here	3	$ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . . .	4(c)	$ _____

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

▶ Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.) ▶ Date

Employers Only	Employer's name and address	First date of employment	Employer identification number (EIN)

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2022 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2021 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2022. You had no federal income tax liability in 2021 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2021 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or

(2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2022 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2023.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as Additional Medicare Tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2022 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2022 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $25,900 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)
$19,400 if you're head of household
$12,950 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information: your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
